Additional text

14.2. Picking children up

Parents/legal representatives (or an authorized person) are obliged to pick the child up no later than 4:30 p.m. (which is the end of the school shift).

In case parents do not pick their child up in the given time, the teacher follows the school's instructions, i.e. the teacher contacts (by phone) other people authorized for picking the child up. In case nobody responds, the teacher is obliged to call Police of the Czech Republic.

Police of the Czech Republic in cooperation with the Department of Social Protection for Children take over the child and procure the transport to a specified facility in Brno.

In case the authorised person seems to be intoxicated or under influence of drugs in the way which could be dangerous for the child, the teacher is obliged to follow the school's instructions, i. e. call the other people authorised for picking the child up. In case none of these people responds, the teacher is obliged to contact Police of the Czech Republic. Police of the Czech Republic in cooperation with the Department of Social Protection for Children take over the child and procure the transport to a specified facility in Brno.

This appendix is valid for all the points of school rules, where are stated information for security procuring of children attending the nursery school. The school rules do not change in the other points.
